

I have received very few calls (less than 1 per week) since Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections were put into place. The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen the protections that we have received in the State of Indiana. Private time is very important to me.